MIDDLE SCHOOL CLINICIAN

KYLE WIEMAR is in his fourteenth year of teaching and fourth with Owasso Public Schools in Owasso, Oklahoma. After studying music education at the University of Oklahoma, Mr. Wiemar began his teaching career in Yukon, Oklahoma from 2009 to 2015. In 2015, the Yukon 8th Grade Band was selected as an OkMEA Honor Band. That same year he was named Yukon Middle School's Teacher of the Year. From 2015 to 2019, Mr. Wiemar taught in Tomball, Texas as a junior high band director in the Tomball Independent School District. In 2016, he opened Creekside Park Junior High School serving as its first band director and Fine Arts Department Chair. Mr. Wiemar was named one of Creekside Park's first A+ Teachers of the Year in 2016.

In the 2019 school year, he joined the Owasso Band Staff. He conducts the High School Symphonic Band 2, 8th Grade Symphonic Band, teaches beginning clarinet courses, and assists with the Pride of Owasso Marching Band. Ensembles under Mr. Wiemar's direction consistently receive the OSSAA Outstanding Achievement and UIL Sweepstakes Awards. He is an active clinician and presenter in Oklahoma, Texas, and Arkansas. Most recently, Mr. Wiemar presented at the 2022 Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago, Illinois. He is a member of NAFME, OkMEA, TMEA, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

HIGH SCHOOL CLINICIAN

DR. CHRISTOPHER BAUMGARTNER is Associate Professor of Music Education at the University of Oklahoma where he teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in music education, and supervises music student teachers and graduate music education research. He directs the OU New Horizons Band, recently commissioning A New Horizon by composer Cait Nishimura to commemorate the ensemble's 20th year on campus.

Prior to his appointment at OU, Dr. Baumgartner taught music education and bands at Middle Tennessee State University and the University of Missouri, and instrumental music in the Kenton (Ohio) Public Schools for four years, directing the high school, middle school, and beginning band programs. He continues to serve as a clinician and adjudicator for school bands of all levels in Oklahoma and beyond.

Dr. Baumgartner is a member of the Journal of Music Teacher Education Editorial Review Committee. Recently appointed to the Society for Music Teacher Education Executive Board, he serves as ASPA (Area of Strategic Planning and Action) Coordinator, overseeing the 12 workgroups charged with developing and implementing action plans related to current critical issues in music teacher education. In Oklahoma, he founded the OkMEA Mentorship program, where he has designed and initiated a statewide music mentoring program and Beginning Teacher Workshop. Dr. Baumgartner serves on the NAfME Conference Planning Committee, and is a member of the Oklahoma Music Educators Association, National Association for Music Education, International Society for Music Education, Society for Music Teacher Education, Pi Kappa Lambda, Tau Beta Sigma, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.
